for which Patsey Devine paid the death penalty was the murder of Aaron Goodfellow, aged about 50 years, who was a highly esteemed citizen of Bloomington, and the father of a Chicago & Alton engineer. The murder was the culmination of an attempted robbery one night between nine and ten o'clock during the fall of 1879, and was committed near Franklin Park, in one of the fashionable quarters of Bloomington. The victim, Aaron Goodfellow, had been spending the evening with friends, with whom he had been playing croquet and other games. Returning home Mr. Goodfellow stepped into a grocery store a few minutes past nine o'clock where he conversed with friends for a few moments, then passed on toward his home. As he was passing an alley beyond the Dodson mansion on Chestnut street, a man stepped out as Goodfellow approached, and commanded him to hold up his hands. Instead of doing so Mr. Goodfellow, who was a brave man and stout for his years, grappled with the would-be robber and while the two were struggling together for the mastery, a second robber, (who is believed to have been Williams), came from a shadow close by, and deliberately shot George E. Bryant, Captain E. L. Ba-Goodfellow in the breast. The victim ker, Gen. John W. Noble, Gen. J. D. fell to the ground mortally wounded, and both ruffians fled rapidly down the alley Bloomington, visited the condemned | and escaped. They were seen by a negro of the pistol was plainly heard by people n the neighborhood, and soon a crowd collected where the wounded man lay bleeding and partially unconscious. He was borne to his home, where he died on the following morning. BIOGRAPHICAL.

Patsey Devine was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1856, and was therefore 26 years of age. He spent a portion, of his boyhood days in that city, and afterwards sequently he was engaged for a time as a Louis, Mo. He also tended bar in saloons will be laid for three hundred perin that city, and was sent to the Missouri penitentiary, at Jefferson City, on conviction on a charge of grand larceny. While there he met Williams, and after their discharge, both finishing their sentence about the same time, they became traveling companions, and were together most of the priest. He made no confession the time until Devine's arrest in New York by officer Butler, for the Goodfellow murder at Bloomington. When a boy Patsey served a year in the Pontiac, Ill., Reform School, having been sent up from Belleville for larceny. In an interview Patsey described Williams as a dangerous, pas sionate young man, who would kill without hesitation, and for this reason he (Devine) left him on several occasions, Williams' recklessness being exceedingly annoying to Patsey. He left him in Bloomington on the morning of the murder, on that account. Devine, was an Irish-American, five feet eight inches high, and weighed 160 oounds, light complexion, and of good build; was twice tried for the murder of A few minutes before 11 o'clock Goodfellow, and each time found guilty and sentenced to death. The first trial and conviction was decided by the Supreme Court to be illegal, and the case was remanded for a new trial. After shoving off the case for several terms, it was finally tried again last March, with the result above stated. He again appealed to the Supreme Court, but to no avail. > WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.- The argument on the bill of exceptions in the Guiteau case was resumed this morning, and Colonel Corkhill opened for the prosecution. After detailing the circumstances of the shooting, he passed on to the question of jurisdiction, and pronounced as absurd the position taken that, because President Garfield was not allowed remain in Washington and die, therefore the court has no jurisdiction. Mr. Corkhill discussed this question at considerable length.

Mr. Corkhill quoted the decision of the supreme court of Tennessee which held that the offense was committed at the place of the blow, though death occurred elsewhere. He argued that the evidence admitted for the prosecution to rebut the defense of insanity was competent, and properly admitted; that it was justifiable in rebuttal for the prosecution to go to any length in showing that the acts of defendant which had been offered as evidence of insanity were rather the product of immorality. The counsel discussed at some length the exception to the evidence of Mrs. Dunmore, Guiteau's former wife, claiming the domain of confidential communications between husband and wife had not been invaded by the prosecution. At the conclusion of Corkhill's ad dress, Mr. Davidge immediately began the closing argument for the prosecution, addressing himself to the question of jurisdiction.

The court adjourned before Day dge had concluded his argument.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 11.—A spec ial from Jacksonport, Ark., on White river, says the town is three feet un der water, and that the river is still rising.

The heavy rains of the pust three days have caused a washout on the line of the Memphis & Charleston railroad, at Muddy Creek, 75 miles east of Memphis. Water covers the track for a distance of three miles. All through travel has been suspended. If there are no more rains the break will be repaired by next Satur

There is no interruption of travel over the Louisville & Nashville, nor the Mississippi & Tennessee. On the latter road a slight break occurred yesterday, at Senatobir, but trains now run regularly.

LONDON, May 11.- Davitt says he will willingly go to Ireland and do what he can to further peaceful doctrines, but he asks how he can pro test, with effect, against outrages when the most brutal and irritating ontrages are being committed in the name of law? The man Quail, or Quinn, arrested at Preston yesterday, on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of Cavendish and Burke, was remanded until Saturday. A detective stated that he thought he could call evidence which would implicate him.

Gowan, with an ugly cut three inches long, on the left side of his neck nearly penetrating to the jugular vein, and a bad cut on one elbow, was brought up town at once, and led around the streets by Mr. Moore and a negro, and along the ronte Gowan's blood bespattered the payement. His shirt front was completely saturated with blood, as were also portions of his coat. He was finally placed in charge of Marshal Hewes and taken to the office of the Drs. Chenoweth to have his cuts dressed. It prove fatal. He will no doubt be around again in a few days.

Thomas Gowan is a brother of Henry Gowan, the tabernacle junitor. He was divorced some time ago from his wife, and now has three children in Decatur. He is a man who gets on occasional sprees. Last fall he had the delirium tremens twice and ran wild in the timber on two rainy nights. About two weeks ago he commenced drinking hard again, but quit five days ago, since which time he has not drank anything intoxicating. It is generally believed that he had another attack of delirium tremens when he attempted to kill himself this afternoon.

GONE BEFORE.

We are called upon to-day to chronick dence on the southwest corner of South Main and Washington Sts. The deceased cerated for two months in Libby prison, with Christian fortitude, passing away easily and peacefully, surrounded by his family and near relatives, who have ministered unto him tenderly during his long ence, Washington county, Pa., and was therefore in the 47th year of his age. He pecame a salesman in V. Barber's store will go to Muscatine with the Decatur in 1858, with whom during subsequent years he was associated in .business. When the war broke out Mr. Kerr enlisted as a soldier in the 85th regiment Pannsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and was commissioned Captain of Company A of that regiment. He served his country gallantly until taken prisoner, when he was thrown into Libby prison at Richmond, Va. While in this foul den is not thought that the wounds will the deceased was greatly reduced in flesh, and like many other Union prisoners, contracted a disease from which he never recovered. After his release he returned to Decatur, and has since resided here. During the past ten years, Captain Kerr has held the responsible position of corresponding secretary and head book-keeper in the check-rower manufacturing firm of Haworth & Sons, from which he was compelled to retire last summer on account of failing health. He was a careful and correct business man, and in all his dealings with his fellow men he displayed that integrity and honesty of purpose that ennobles and elevates man in the estimation of his associates and friends. Socially, Mr. Kerr was genial and courteous, his relations with his acquaintances being of the pleasantest character. He vas an honored member of Decatur Lodge, No. 687, Knights of Honor, and of Decatur Lodge, Independent Order Mutual Aid; also an active member of the Macon County Veteran Association. The deceased leaves a widow and one child, and a number of relatives in this and other cities, who have the sympathy of our people in their sad bereavement. The funeral will take place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon. The funeral will be conducted by Ray, W. H. Prestley. K, of H.

A special meeting of Decatur lodge, No 687, will be held to-night, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of Bro. W. W. Kerr. A full attendance is JOHN IRWIN, Dictator. desired. H. A. Wood, Reporter.

I. O. M. A. The members of Central Lodge No. will meet at the Knights of Honor hall this evening to make arrangements for attending the funeral of Bro. W. W. Kerr. A full attendance is desired. O. F. CORMAN, President.

H. A. Woon, Secretary.

The State Convention. The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Sunday schools of this state will be held at Champaign, May 16, 17 and 18. Something of the character of the convention is foreshadowed in a knowledge of the fact that the following gentlemen of national reputation as Sunday school vorkers have promised to be present and ear a part in the programme: Rev. J. H. Vincent, D. D., editor S. S.

publications of M. E. church. Rev. J. A. Worden, D. D., superintend-Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., late editor of Buptist S.S. Teacher. Rev. A. S. Dunning, S. S. secretary of Congregational publishing society. At our last county Sabbath school couvention the following gentlemen were elected as delegates to this state gathering of S. S. workers: J. H. Pickiell, Rev. W. A. Reynolds, Rev. W. L. Bankson, Rev. R. M. Sargent, Rev. G. M. Goode, J.

R. Gorin, D. K. Wilson, S. M. Lutz, Milton Clark and S. Overmire. Delegates to this convention going over the W., St. L. & P. R. R. will procure tickets at one and one-third fares. It is hoped that this county will be represent ed by a full delegation. The county sec-retary will forward credentials to delegates elect at once.

Because everybody knows that a merchant must live by his profits, and if he sells a staple article at a loss he will of course have to make it up on something else, the value of which customers cannot so readily determine. Merchants who do business largely on credit cannot possibly compete for the close cash trade with live retailers who buy and sell exclusively for eash. Neither is it possible for credit stores, by their 2 cent calico or any other similar dodge, to prevent the New York Store, with its strictly all cash one price system, from continuing in the lend with low and popular prices. PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Linderwood, of Chicago, are in the city visiting T. H. Wingate and family for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Bodman, of Bement, and Miss Powell, of Girard, were among those who took in the p. d. q. p. at the armory last night. DD. H. Conklin, of Terre Haute, the new receiver for the Midland road, was in the city to-day. He states that the general offices of the road will soon be removed from Terre Haute to this city. C. R. Smyth, formerly in business at Kansas City, Mo., is now bookkeeper in the office of William Keenan, the grain dealer. Mr. Smyth has had considerable experience in the grain business, and is a valued acquisition to the office. Harl. P. Christie arrived home this morning from Cincinnati, after an absence of several months. He has traveled over fifteen states during the past season, and firemen the last of this month. Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell returned home this morning after a two weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Shellabarger, in Topeka Kan. The Dr. and Mrs. M. stood the trip well, and left their relatives enjoying good health.

John H. Crocker, of Maroa, passed through Decatur last night en route for Pittsburg, Pa., being called there by telegraph on account of the dangerous illness of his brother, Rufus C. Crocker, formerly a hardware dealer of this city.

The invitation soirce given at Guards Armory last night from 9 to 12, by the "P. D. Q's," under the management of Will. Leiby, jr., John Archer, jr., and Cute Block, was attended by about 30 couples. Delightful music for this jolly party was furnished by the Italian band of five pieces now in the city, with Prof. Leonard as prompter. Fifteen numbers with three extras, mostly mazy, were danced. The party, in the expressive words of a local poet, was voted "The Boss," and the music superb.

Having repeatedly heard that a certain Mr. Fahrbach, now in the employ of H. Mueller, claims to have done a fine job of plumbing and steam-fitting in this city, while in the employ of Korsmeyer & O'Neill, I wish to state for the information of our friends and customers, that I made out the specification for same jobs, laid out all the work and superintended the job personally, which fact Mr. F. or H. Mueller can not successfully contradict in my presence. Mr. F. did most of the running of the pipes and making the joints, which any one of my men could have done as well under my instruction.

Calico at 2 Cents a Yard, but We Did More.

We sold 2400 yards on Monday; 1800 yards Tuesday; 1800 yards Wednesday, and 1900 yards Thursday. So we have already sold 4,800 yards MORE than we promised, and we are not through yet But having discovered that DEALERS were taking advantage of this sale, which was intended alone for consumers, and as some parties got two and three hundred yards we determined to limit the quantity in order that a general distribution might be made. If people, therefore, will read and think for themselves, and not attack undue importance to the vaporings of KNAVES, they will discover they have no cause for complaint.

We shall continue to sell all the best Ginghams in dress styles at 9c.; the next grade at 6c.; black and colored Silks at prices that cannot be equaled for cheap-

We shall also sell on Saturday another lot of Calicoes at 2 cents a yard; a lot of DRESS GOODS at 9 cents a yard, worth from 25 to 30c; and Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets, and a large lot of General Merchandise cheaper than were ever known. LINN & SCRUGGS.

we have attained this end is a pretty well established fact. And though we call ar-

For Wook Lings and Consumption, No preparation ever introduced to the American public, for the relief and cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Debditated Constitution, Weakness of the Lungs, or Consumption in the incipient or advanced stages of the disease, has ever met with the indorsements of physicians or patients as the celebrated "Tolu, Rock and Rye." The repeated and continued sales of the article everywhere are the best evidence of its real merits. Letters and testimonials from every quarter of the country, attesting the stimulating, tonic and bealing effects, are in possession of the proprietors, and can be adduced to convince the most skeptical reader of its intrinsic virtues. Further commendation is unnecessary and superfluous, as a trust of this article, having a pleasant taste and agreeable flavor, will satisfy all those who are afflicted or plining away with pulmonary weakness of the relief to be secured by the use of Tolu, Rock and lye.
